

Manual CBR Load Frame

The Manual CBR load frame is designed with separate cranks for platen position and sample loading operation. The press meets specifications when cranked at the required speed. Included with the load frame is a load ring, dial indicator and penetration piston. The frame is compliant with AASHTO T193 and ASTM D1883 specifications.

